Definitive response for railings In Henley & Studley	Update for next meeting	Lizzie Price, WCC		Studley: Chris Burrows is awaiting formal consent from Tesco's to move bollards nearer the kerb. When consent has been given he will ask County Highways to program the works. Henley: Chris Burrows has carried out a site visit and updated "I don't think railings are appropriate in that environment. There are already double yellow lines outside the shop which should be enforced. There are also a number of black bollards. I'm told this location is also within the conservation area which would also prohibit railings. Whilst there I spoke to an independent shopkeeper who advised me deliveries to Somerfield Shop are made from the frontage when in fact there is a loading bay at the rear. It is my belief any railings would be detrimental to this location.
