Cllr Mrs Sue Redman attends Royal Garden Party

Cllr Mrs Sue Redman & Mr Mike Redman outside Buckingham Palace

Cllr Mrs Sue Redman was invited to Buckingham Place today to attend the Royal Garden Party in recognition of her past service as Chair to the Parish Council. She was accompanied by her husband, Mr Mike Redman.

Every summer the Queen holds 3 garden parties, two at Buckingham Palace and 1 at the palace of Holyroodhouse in Scotland. The Royal Garden parties are an opportunity for the Queen and the royal family to meet and greet a cross-section of British society and thank them for various good deeds they have done. The emphasis is on rewarding the unsung heroes and heroines of British society.
